

Banking Operation: This Subject covers the basic operations of bank, including account opening, cash handling & various banking transactions.

Financial Management: This subject covers the principle of financial management including budgeting, forecasting & financial analysis.

Retail Banking: This subject covers the various product & services offered by banks to retail customers